

Haman allowed one negative to steal the joy away from many positives.

- We appreciate our blessings,
but we focus on our aggravations.

As dead flies give perfume a bad smell,
so a little folly... (Ecc. 10:1)

Each heart knows its own bitterness...
(Prov. 14:10)

It is CRAZY and TRAGIC to allow a bitterness or disappointment to contaminate and poison the sweetness and satisfaction of life!

Move Your Hand! PERSPECTIVE

Force yourself to itemize the quantity and quality of BLESSINGS vs. IRRITATIONS.
This will change your perspective!

In this world you will have trouble.

[PERSPECTIVE #1]

But take heart! I have overcome the world!

[PERSPECTIVE #2] (Jn. 16:33)

Mow Your Yard! (At least... chop the top!)

Bitterness, like a weed, has a root [cause].
If you cannot remove the root, purposefully cut off the stalk every time it seeks to emerge. Deprive the root of sunlight so that it cannot grow!

DO NOT ALLOW the bitter incident/memory to rule your soul and ruin your satisfaction with life.

Look after each other so that none of you fails to receive the grace of God. Watch out that no poisonous root of bitterness GROWS to trouble you, corrupting many.

(Heb. 12:15)

Relocate the Garbage! (Send it to the landfill)

Most folks do not have the resources or knowledge required to annihilate garbage. So it is turned over to someone who does. The significant thing for you is that it is gone from your house.

In Bible terms, this action of transfer is called forgiveness.

The motive is not simply to remove the stink from my house, but also to obey God by doing for others what he has done for me.

Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another.
Forgive as the LORD FORGAVE YOU!

(Col. 3:13)
